Runaway
FROM the subscriber on the morning of Wednesday July 10th, LILE, a negro man well known in the County as a Blacksmith. He has for a long time been working at his trade on various plantations in the surrounding country and as he may attempt to pass as though still engaged at it, and thus escape apprehension, this notice becomes necessary.

PROSPECTUS OF THE Southern Press.
AN association of sixty-three members of Congress, Senators and Representatives, have constituted the undersigned a committee to superintend the establishment of a Southern Press at Washington city to be devoted to the exposition and defence of Southern Rights insurrection—the dissemination of correct information as to Northern Policy, and the course of Political Affairs generally, without reference to the old party lines of Whig and Democrat. Arrangements are now in progress, promptly to insure the issue of a paper under the title of "SOUTHERN PRESS."

for the conduct of which, suitable Editors have been engaged, who will also receive the aid of a number of eminent and able contributors.
There will be both a tri-weekly and a weekly issue—the latter to contain substantially the same matter as the former, and intended to reach those points of the country whose mail facilities are limited.
A Daily issue will be added hereafter, should it be deemed advisable or necessary by the press and people of the southern States.

The paper will not be exclusively political—but will embrace on its broad sheet the General News of the Day, Domestic and Foreign, by mail and telegraph; Commercial and Agricultural Intelligence, Literary Criticisms, Original Essays, Literary and Miscellaneous; and, in short, all those items of general interest, the collected aggregate of which constitutes the interesting and valuable Newspaper. Great care will be taken to give full and correct Reports of the Proceedings and Debates in both Houses of Congress, as well as the action of the local Legislatures on the Southern question.

A limited number only of Advertisements will be received—the main object being to furnish a large amount of reading matter. The sheet will be printed on a sheet equal in size to those of the other Washington papers, and the material will be procured especially for the purpose.
It is confidently hoped that every true friend to the South will aid in procuring subscribers, and forward the names, with the amount subscribed to some Southern Representative at Washington, forthwith. Postmasters are authorized by law to remit subscriptions free of postage.

For the Tri-Weekly during the session of Congress, and Semi-Weekly during the recess, the price will be per annum $5 00
Weekly paper - - - - - 2 00
The price of subscription must be paid invariably in advance, and the cash accompany the names sent.
All persons procuring ten names shall be entitled to receive a copy gratis for one year.
A. P. BUTLER, JACKSON MORRIS,
R. THOMAS, J. THOMPSON.
Editors, and papers friendly to the enterprise, will please publish this Prospectus, which will entitle them to an exchange with the newspaper. All who comply with this request will send a copy of the paper containing it to the Committee.

Blacksmithing
AND Waggon Making.
TRULY thankful for the patronage bestowed upon them the past year
Henry & Brother
take this occasion to offer their services again to the public, hoping that they will be favored with a liberal share of its patronage. They are both practical workmen, have carried on business a number of years, and are confident that work entrusted to them will be promptly, faithfully and satisfactorily attended to. Blacksmithing in all its various branches they are prepared to do, from the simplest to the most difficult patterns. They will give particular attention to all which may be sent them.
PLANTATION WORK
Mr. GEORGE HILDEBRAND will receive orders for making or repairing
WAGGONS, MARKET BUGGIES,
&c., &c.,—and we can assure the public that the iron and wood-work shall be equal to the best, let it come from where it may.
Our Shop remains the same location as last year.
We ask only the opportunity, to please the public.
HENRY & BROTHER.

Dentistry.
S. & D. STOCKING, Resident Dentists, can be found at their office on Commercial Row at all times, when not professionally absent. All work done by them shall be satisfactory and equal to any done in the country, or no pay. Terms moderate, and all operations warranted. Whole sets of artificial teeth inserted on gold plate by atmospheric pressure. Artificial palates so perfectly fitted as to produce distinctness in the enunciation as if no malformation had taken place. All orders sent by mail, or left with the Postmaster in this place, will be attended to.
Woodville, Jan. 1, 1850.

Carriage & Waggon Making AND REPAIRING.
SMITH & RICHARDSON, thankful for former patronage, hereby inform their old friends and the public generally, that they are now prepared to execute all work in the above line of Business on reasonable terms, and guarantee that their work shall be well and promptly done. We do not promise to work cheaper than any body else, but expect a fair remuneration for our labor, when our work is honestly done.
Their Shop is opposite Eady's Confectionary, adjoining Lewis's Blacksmith Shop.
BLACKSMITHING.
HAVING employed the services of a first-rate Blacksmith, in connection with my own, I am prepared to do all kind of plantation work in a first rate manner, and at the usual terms and prices.
Gunsmithing is also performed with neatness and dispatch.

EDITED BY LEWIS KATLON CLARKE.
This is pronounced, by the press of America and England, "the best Magazine in America." It has now completed its thirty-fourth volume, and in its list of upward of a hundred contributors, are found the names of every distinguished writer, male and female, in America, with several equally prominent of Great Britain, Turkey, Sweden, etc. A new volume will commence with the first day of January, 1850.—The following notices of the Knickerbocker are from the American and English press, to which might be added hundreds of others.
The last Knickerbocker is exceedingly good. Some of the articles are worthy of Blackwood's palmist days. The Editor's table is in Mr. Clark's happiest vein; varied and racy in a remarkable degree.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.
The Knickerbocker seems to increase in attraction as it advances in age. It exhibits a monthly variety of contributions unsurpassed in number or ability.—Nat. Intelligencer.
The Knickerbocker is one of the most valuable Magazines of the day, and outstrips all competition in the higher walks of literature.—Albany Argus.
The Knickerbocker Magazine is now beyond a question the magazine of the country. Whoever wishes his money's worth, and something over, let him subscribe now to "Old Knick," and our word for it, the Editor's Table alone will amply satisfy his expectations. It is not a periodical to be lightly glanced over and thrown by, but it forms a library book to save and treasure. A set of the Knickerbocker, bound up in volumes, on the shelves of one of our popular libraries, is more consulted (so the Librarian has often told us) than any other similar work.—Boston Daily Transcript.
THE LONDON EXAMINER.—This very clever Magazine is the pleasantest periodical in the United States. Its articles, which are numerous and short, various and interesting, are well worthy of imitation by our Magazines on this side of the Atlantic.
LONDON MORNING CHRONICLE.—Judging from the numbers before us, we are inclined to consider this the best of all the American literary periodicals. Its contents are highly interesting, instructive and amusing.

Reduction in price to Clubs.
The publisher has determined to do every thing in his power to bring the Knickerbocker within the means of all, and invites the attention of those who feel an interest in circulating the best American literature, to the following terms to clubs, viz:
For 5 copies to one address, $20 00
" 10 " " " 35 00
" 20 " " " 60 00
Post Masters throughout the United States are invited and requested to act as agents. To all those who may interest themselves in getting up clubs, we will send a copy FREE so long as they keep up, and remit regularly the yearly payment.
To the subscribers and all interested in our Work.
The publisher desires to avail himself of this opportunity to thank those who have manifested their unabated interest in the Knickerbocker, by sending subscribers. Quite a number have done so, and no doubt with a very slight effort on the part of some friends, our list might be doubled. As a further inducement for this effort on the part of our patrons, we wish to say, that no pains or expense will be spared to enhance the value of the work, and our pages will prove that our readers will receive at least as large a share of benefit from our increased means as we could expect ourselves.
